Illustrative book-only budgets: $15 per student book and $25 per teacher guide, using a planning group of 15 students with one teacher. These are assumptions, not confirmed selling prices. Shipping, tax, and other costs are additional; actual quantities require a quote.

Custom budgets & in-kind support

Have a different budget, useful supplies, printing support, professional services, or an event idea? Ask Gail about a suitable collaboration. In-kind items are accepted only by arrangement.

Actual classrooms vary in size. Student book counts are potential recipients, not measured outcomes. If shipping or taxes must fit within the sponsorship budget, fewer books may be included. Titles, prices, quantities, timing, and recognition are confirmed in writing. No author visit is included automatically.

What sponsors receive

Every level includes a written resource plan, a digital thank-you certificate, and a delivery summary after the agreed resources are delivered.

Recognition is agreed before the project begins

Newsletter timing is agreed in writing; no subscriber count or open rate is promised. Posts use an agreed Detective Sam channel. Recognition starts after agreement and confirmed payment or accepted in-kind support. Schedule, artwork, wording, and links require approval. Tier benefits replace, rather than accumulate with, lower tiers.

Digital supporter badges are available by agreement. No student photos or data are included. School names and logos require permission; recognition is not school endorsement. No views, sales, publicity, or exclusivity are guaranteed. Briefings are business updates, not classroom visits.

Help sponsors be seen in your community

Author readings, book signings, and kindness events can connect local businesses with families in a thoughtful way. Event recognition is an optional addition to a written sponsorship plan.

A personal thank-you

Thank participating businesses during an agreed opening or closing acknowledgment.

A shared sponsor display

Display approved business names or logos on a sponsor sign or slide, where the venue permits.

A useful business connection

Include an approved business QR code on the sponsor display or adult-facing event information. Handouts require the host permission.

Featured event sponsor | $1,000+

Discuss a featured acknowledgment linked to the supported event. Scope, placement, and any additional costs are confirmed in writing.

A post-event recap

Provide a short delivery or event summary. Any social post can acknowledge the sponsor within the agreed tier benefits.

Plan the details together

Event date, venue permission, display format, artwork deadline, printing costs, and recognition wording must be agreed. A sponsorship does not automatically include a scheduled event, speaking slot, sales table, or access to families. No student photos, names, or contact lists are shared.

Keep recognition brief and suitable for the audience. Schools and event hosts may limit commercial logos or handouts.

A clear plan from inquiry to delivery

1. Share your interests

Email your organization, preferred level or budget, recipient or location, age/grade range, learning focus, and ideal timing.

2. Review a written proposal

Gail confirms suitable titles, available formats, quantities, costs, shipping, proposed delivery, and any recognition. The sponsor and recipient review the scope before agreeing.

3. Confirm participation

Payment arrangements and the agreed deliverables are provided with the proposal. Submitting an inquiry is not a payment or binding sponsorship commitment.

4. Coordinate delivery & follow-up

Once agreed, Gail coordinates the defined resources and provides an agreed delivery summary or project update. Any school sharing or recognition follows recipient policies.

Recognition by agreement

Options to discuss include a website thank-you, approved business name or logo placement, and acknowledgment connected with the supported project. Placement, wording, duration, and permissions are specified in writing. No audience size, media coverage, publicity result, or exclusivity is promised.

Choose the right learning materials

Kindness & anti-bullying: resources for preschool through high school, suitable for discussion with public schools, families, and community groups.
Optional Christian resources: Bible Adventures is a separate offering. Include it only when requested and appropriate for the recipient.

This is a Detective Sam Media LLC sponsorship inquiry, not an offer of investment or a promise of a charitable tax receipt.
